COLTON WAR MEMORIAL UNVEILED BY MR. H. L. HORSFALL

Sunday last was a memorable day in the | history Colton, when large numbers of the inhabitants as well as many people from the surrounding districts, took part in the ceremony of unveiling and dedicating the parish war memorial. It occupies a commanding position in the Pinfold, the land on which it is erected, having been kindly presented to the parish by Mr. H. L. Horsfall. This memorial is in the, form of a Crusader's Cross of silver-grey Cornish Granite, 9ft, 6in. high, standing on a base of the same material, 5ft by 3ft. 6in., with stone flags and turf around, surrounded by a stout wall with Yorkshire stone panels and red sandstone flint quoins, with a coping surmounted by a wrought-iron railing, the whole being on a mound and accessible by step. On the arms of the cross is carved a cross-hilted sword, signifying sacrifice and service. The memorial, which is a very imposing one, was designed and executed by Messrs. Walker and Son of Cannock. The names of the fallen with the dedicatory inscription, are inscribed on the front of the base as follows;—

TO THE GLORY OF GOD AND IN HONOURED MEMORY OF THE MEN OF THIS PARISH WHO FELL IN THE GREAT WAR 1914-1919

Shortly before the time fixed for the ceremony the Rugeley Territorial Force, under the command of Lieut. Morton, MC marched through the village and took up a position around the; memorial, four of their members with rifles reversed taking each a corner position inside the memorial enclosure. The procession, which was marshalled by Mr, W, E. Shuttleworth, was composed as follows:-The Rugeley Territorial Band, under the conductorship of Bandmaster - Sergeant Hollins; the Rector and choir boys; Mr. H. L.Horsfall; a strong contingent of ex-soldiers, wearing their war medals; relatives of the fallen; Girl Guides, under the command of Mrs, Oldham; the Brownies; members «f the local Police Force; school children; Ancient Order of Foresters; Manchester Unity of Odd-fellows; and the following members of the Memorial Committee: - Messrs. E.S.Blore (chairman), A.E.Upton (secretary, T.Godwin, T.Deacon, W.E.Shuttleworth, C.Yates, S.Yates, W.Morrall, O.Mellor, J.Jones, T.Richardson, J.Tooth, and G.Middleton

The service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev.D.R.S.Holmes), and commenced with the hymn "O valiant hearts", followed by a short prayer. The unveiling ceremony was then performed by Mr.H.L.Horsfall, who, in the course of his address, said they had all assembled to do honour to the memory of the men of Colton which enabled them all to be there that day with freedom, and he was very proud to have had the honour and privilege of unveiling the memorial. He did not think they could have had more suitable memorial; to his mind, it was most beautiful in its simplicity, and he congratulated Mr, Walker on his wonderful execution of the work, and also thanked the Memorial Committee for their untiring work and successful effort. He had been connected with Colton for 50 years, and this day would ever remain in his memory. The memorial was then dedicated by the Rev.D.R.S.Holmes; after which the "Last Post" was sounded, by the bugler, and a few moments' silence followed. Mr. T. Deacon, on behalf of the Memorial Committee, presented the memorial to the parish, and it was accepted by Mr, E.S.Blore, the Parish Council representative.

The hymn, "O God our help in ages past" was followed by a prayer and the blessing, and the impressive ceremony concluded with the "Reveille" and the National Anthem.

There was a wonderful collection of floral tributes from the relative of the fallen; also from the Memorial Committee, Mrs. Oldham (representing the Girl Guides), Maj. Horsfall, Major O'Keefe, Ancient Order of Forestors (Court No. 3086), Rugeley Territorials, Oldham Lodge of Manchester Unity of Oddfellows, and many other.
